god has placed a dream inside of each of us paul is saying in 1 corinthians 2 9 that we cannot even imagine or comprehend naturally speaking the things god has prepared for us he has a marvelous destiny planned just each one of us it is so unique that he says no eye has seen it nor ear heard it the dream god reveals to our hearts will be different for everyone depending on individual gifts talents and abilities dreams are the wellspring of passion they capture the imagination and engage the spirit they are capable of lifting us to new heights and helping us break through our self imposed limitations god given dreams are the seeds of greatness when there is no clear cut direction or goal for which to live human beings feel purposeless theres not a person on this planet who was born without an ability to do something well its up to each one of us to find out what that ability is tap into it and then pursue it with everything that is in us we are called to be conformed to the image of jesus christ one of the keys to being conformed to his image is finding gods plan for your life and doing it regardless of the cost our lord and savior jesus christ has given us all goals and assignments but even with the combination of right goals sincerity and zeal we do not always accomplish goals in our endeavors too often we either have no sense of strategy or we use the wrong strategy the strategy in the life of Jesus Christ is a strong emphasis on the cost of discipleship Jesus seemed to spend more time warning men of trials and difficulties than he did urging them to follow him the cost of discipleship means there is a price that one must pay to go further in God Christianity is a challenge what is it that you have always dreamed of doing what is that you have always desired to accomplish in the Lord the things we seek after in God are not out of reach but they don't just come to us even though God is no respecter of persons and he is ready to do the extraordinary the remarkable and the rare in every believer's life though it may surprise you the richest deposits on our planet lie just a few blocks from your house they rest in your local cemetery or graveyard buried beneath the soil within the walls of those sacred grounds are dreams that never came to pass songs that were never sung books that were never written paintings that never filled a canvas ideas that never were shared visions that never became a reality inventions that never went beyond the drawing board the mind and purposes that were never fulfilled our graveyards are filled with potential that remained potential I will endeavor in this book meet the challenge set forth by the word of God examining Nixon's autobiographies and political memorabilia Frick offers far-reaching perceptions not only of the man but of Nixon's version of himself contrasted with those who would interpret him differently he cites reinventions of Nixon from the late 1980s particularly the museum at the Richard Nixon Library and Birthplace to demonstrate the resilience of certain national mythic narratives in the face of liberal critiques and he recounts how celebrants at Nixon's state funeral at which Bob Dole's eulogy depicted a God-fearing American hero attempted to bury the sources of our divisions over him rendering in some minds the judgment of redeemed statesman to erase his status as disgraced president with dozens of illustrations Nixon posing with Elvis the National Archives most requested photo Nixonian cultural artifacts classic editorial cartoons no other book collects in one place such varied images of Nixon from so many diverse media these reinforce Frick's probing analysis to help us understand why we disagree about Nixon and why it matters how we resolve our disagreements book jacket
